Statement of Compliance with the FCC's Customer Proprietary Network Information "CPNI" Rules and Regulations

Fidelity Communications Co. and subsidiaries' ("Fidelity") operating procedures certify that Fidelity is in compliance with the FCC's rules and regulations regarding Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI).

All of Fidelity's employees are aware that disclosure of our customers' CPNI information without obtaining the proper customer approval is a violation of the FCC's rules set forth in 47 U.S.C. 222 and Subpart U of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations; 47 C.F.R. 64.2001 through 64.2009.

Fidelity has taken the steps and has internal procedures in place so as to educate our employees through training regarding the FCC's rules and regulations as to when and where CPNI information may be released. The employees that have access to this information are aware that the FCC prohibits the disclosure of such information without the proper customer consent and as allowed by law and the FCC's rules.

Any employee that violates Fidelity's CPNI operating procedures is subject to disciplinary action, up to dismissal.

Fidelity mandates yearly CPNI training for all employees to ensure up to date compliance with any new regulations.

Fidelity has implemented safeguards for our customers' protection against pretexters consistent with the FCC's requirements in Section 47 C.F.R. 64.2010.

Fidelity has not taken any actions against data brokers in the past year regarding any breach of CPNI information.

Fidelity has not received any customer complaints in the past year concerning the unauthorized release of CPNI.
